Dear parents and carers,

University of Durham Political History Lecture

I am pleased to inform you that your child has expressed an interest in attending a two-part university workshop with the University of Durham on the subject of Political History, covering the political reform of 1867, and the suffrage movement. We are delighted to offer this super curricular opportunity to our Year 12 students as it will provide a valuable insight into university style teaching, and provide an enriching experience for students, helping them to make informed choices regarding degree courses.

These workshops will take place from 3.30 - 4.30pm on Thursday 30 June and Thursday 7 July.

We will meet in a classroom and join the Durham University academics online, and this means students will be visible and audible on camera. This will be hosted through the school's Microsoft Teams platform, communicating with the University's Microsoft Teams platform.

If you are happy to consent to your child being on camera to interact with the university lecturers please do so by email at sbutler@wealdgs.org by 4pm on Friday 24 June.

If you have any questions regarding this super curricular opportunity please do not hesitate to contact me by email.

Yours sincerely,

Ms S. Butler

Teacher of Sociology & EPQ Coordinator
